

I'M GOING TO THE THEATRE

PARTY PARTY BOOM BOOM
PLAYHOUSE

CIVIC THEATRE NEWCASTLE

TANTRUM

I am going to a live performance at the Playhouse.
I can find the entry to the Playhouse on Hunter Street, right across from the Civic light rail station.

When I go through the doors I can take the lift or the stairs to get to the Playhouse foyer.

The toilets are located on the first floor, at the top of the stairs and right near the lift. There are accessible toilets, female and male toilets and a baby change table available.

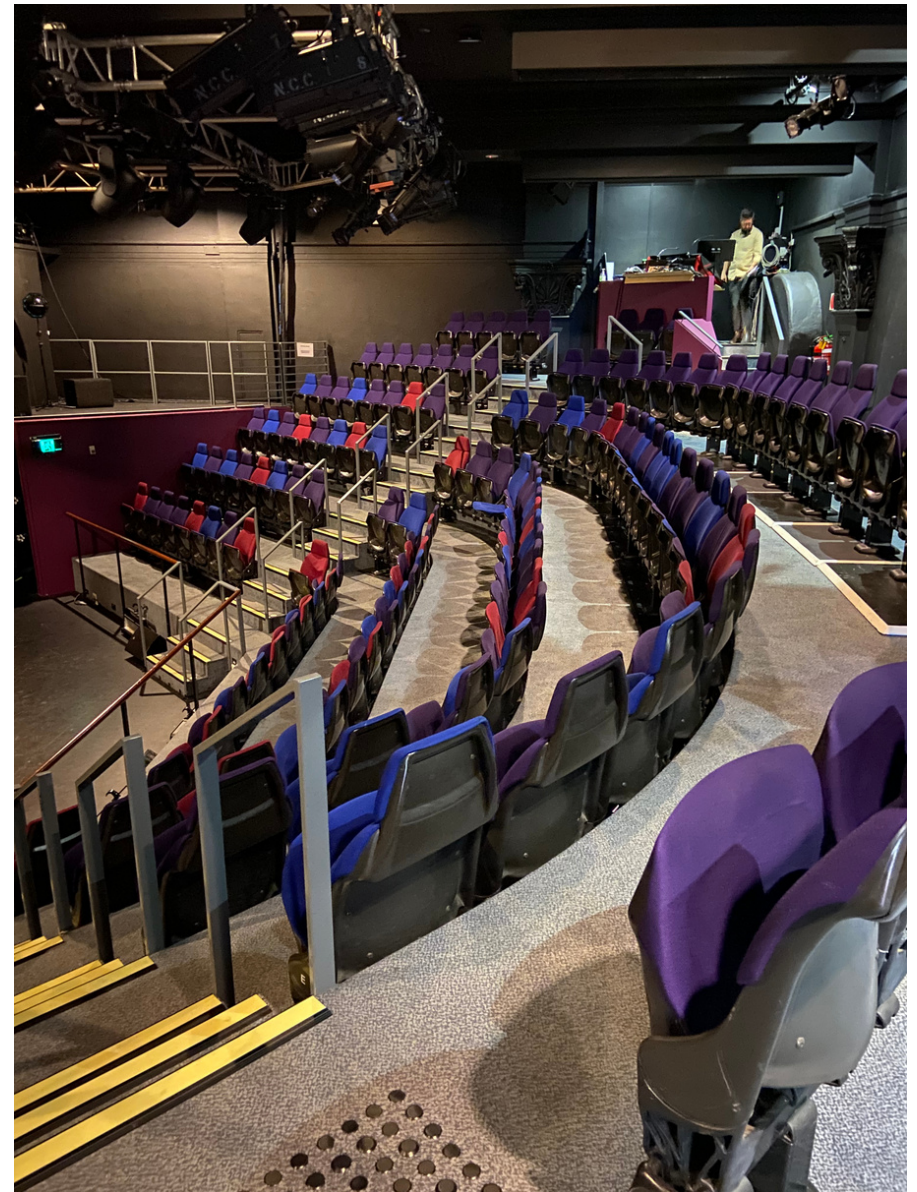

In the foyer I can collect my tickets, buy a drink and sit down and relax before the performance starts. The foyer might be busy when I arrive with many people waiting for the show.

Chimes will ring when the performance is about to start. I can take the stairs or the lift up to the next level to get to the theatre.

While I am in the theatre I am not allowed to take photos or video of the performance.
I must also make sure my mobile phone is switched off or on 'silent'.

At the door to the theatre there may be an usher - a person who will check my ticket and help me find my seat.
To get to my seat I may walk in front of other people. Other people may walk in front of me to get to their seat too.

On the stage there will be items set up for the show.

When the show is ready to start the lights will darken and everyone will sit quietly to listen to the performance.

There may be some loud music, bright lights and spooky costumes in this show.

If I see something that makes me nervous I can cover my eyes, wear earphones or go out into the foyer to take a break.

During the show there will be some times when the actors interact with the audience.
This is optional and I can choose not to participate if I like.

If I see something in the show that I like or think is funny I can laugh or clap. Other people may do this too.

At the end of the performance the actors will bow and everyone will clap and cheer,
The lights will come back on and everyone will leave the theatre.
I may have to wait in line while everyone leaves.
